Community Contribution Guidelines

At Leaders Credit Union, we believe in giving back to the community. Jackson has been our home for over 50 years, and we are dedicated to strengthening the community that supports us. As a local, not-for-profit institution, Leaders Credit Union understands the importance of community support. We believe together, we can make a difference.

The following criteria have been developed to focus our efforts and maximize impact.

These guidelines may not cover every possibility, and Leaders Credit Union reserves the right to make exceptions based on the purpose of the donation and community impact.

Eligibility:

- Must be a local civic, charitable, or academic not-for-profit organization/event
- Select Employee Groups may be considered

Guidelines:

- Leaders Credit Union may choose to contribute time, money, or property
- Community Contribution Request Form must be submitted in writing
- Must directly benefit the Jackson/Madison County community we serve
- Must benefit Leaders Credit Union through community goodwill, positive publicity, and when possible, access to a group's membership list or roster for member prospecting

Leaders Credit Union will not consider the following requests:

- For-Profit agencies/organizations
- Individuals
 - Rare exceptions may include: personal or family disaster, or "once-in-a-lifetime" educational trip
 - Examples not considered: Beauty pageants sponsored by private, for-profit organizations, sports teams
- Religious or Church organizations (because membership has spiritual diversity)
 - Rare exceptions may include: specific humanitarian or charitable missions
